Death Investigation

ABILENE, TX – The Abilene Police Department’s Major Investigations Bureau is investigating the death of a 45-year-old Abilene man. Christopher Carrion was taken to the hospital on Monday, January 3, 2022, due to injuries sustained in a fight days earlier. Carrion was pronounced deceased at the hospital on Tuesday, January 4, 2022.

Carrion was involved in a mutual fight with a 23-year-old male on Thursday, December 30, 2021, at a home located in the 800 Block of Ballinger Street in Abilene. Carrion suffered internal injuries and was later taken to the hospital where he passed away. This fight was not reported to police at the time it occurred.

No charges have been filed against the other party involved. Investigators are awaiting autopsy results as this investigation continues.

Respectfully,

Rick Tomlin
Public Information Coordinator
