Abilene Police Investigating Early Morning Homicide

ABILENE, TX – A 19-year-old male died at the hospital of injuries sustained when he and a juvenile male were shot outside a home located in the 400 block of South La Salle Dr. Police were called out to the home at 12:46 a.m. on Tuesday, March 29, 2022, for an injured subject call. Homeowners reported hearing several gunshots. When officers arrived, they discovered two males who were both shot outside the home. A 19-year-old succumbed to his injuries at the hospital. A second victim, a 16-year-old juvenile was also transported multiple gunshot wounds. He is listed in critical condition. The suspect or suspects fled the scene after the shooting.

Detectives with the Major Investigations Bureau are working to identify a possible suspect or suspects. If you have any information regarding this homicide, you are urged to contact Abilene Crime Stoppers at (325) 676-8477 (TIPS). You will remain anonymous and eligible for a cash reward.

Respectfully,

Rick Tomlin
