Suspect Arrested for Several Robberies and Thefts

ABILENE, TX – The Abilene Police Department’s Major Investigations Bureau has arrested a Winters, TX man. 31-year-old Wyman Cameron Burson III is behind bars for two counts of Second Degree Felony Robbery. Detectives are working on five other cases including two other robberies, an Aggravated Robbery, an attempted robbery, and a Theft, his arrest will help close.

He is behind bars for a robbery that occurred in January, at the Farm and Ranch Western Wear store located on Southwest Drive. Surveillance video captured him, and with the assistance of tips from the public, he was identified, arrested, and charged with the crime. He was implicated in the six other cases mentioned that spanned over two months.

The investigations are ongoing. Burson remains in the Taylor County Jail as the other cases have been or will be filed with the District Attorney’s Office.

Wyman Cameron Burson III

Respectfully,

Rick Tomlin
Public Information Coordinator
