Three Area Men Charged with Crimes Against Children

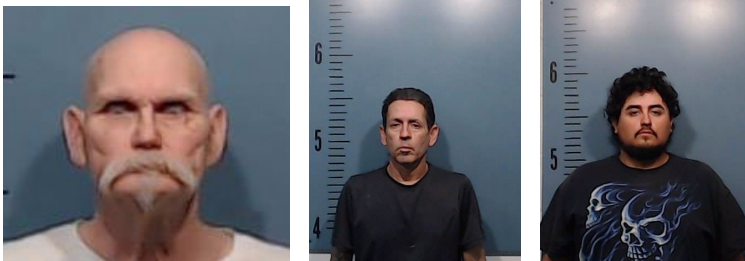

Abilene, Texas – The Abilene Police Department Special Investigations Bureau Cyber Crimes aided in the arrest of three area men for various charges of crimes against children.

APD worked with the FBI Dallas Division's Child Exploitation Task Force and the North Texas Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force. The month-long operation netted several arrests and charges against men from across the state including three Abilene men.

Charles Albert Stanfiel III, 72 years of age, 3rd Degree Felony Possession of Child Pornography

Edward Rodriquez, 53 years of age, 3rd Degree Felony Online Solicitation of a Minor

Marcus Lugo, 25 years of age, 3rd Degree Felony Possession of Child Pornography

Charles Stanfiel

Edward Rodriquez

Marcus Lugo

Stanfiel absconded before an arrest was made and remains at large. If you have any information, you should contact Abilene Crime Stoppers, (325) 676-8477 (TIPS) to remain anonymous and eligible for a cash reward.

A media release from the FBI Dallas Division and list of offenders is attached.

Respectfully,

Rick Tomlin
Public Information Coordinator
