Former Abilene Police Officer Arrested

Abilene, Texas – On the evening of Friday, April 21, the Abilene Police Department's Office of Professional Accountability was made aware of a complaint involving an Officer of the Abilene Police Department. After a preliminary investigation, it was determined that the allegations involved a potential criminal violation that occurred while the officer was off-duty. Abilene Police Administration contacted the Department of Public Safety's Texas Rangers Division and requested an independent investigation. The officer involved in this allegation, Adam Becker, resigned from the Abilene Police Department on Monday, April 24.

Abilene Police Administration is aware of yesterday's arrest of Adam Becker. Further media inquiries regarding this investigation and arrest should be directed to the Department of Public Safety's Texas Rangers Division.

This is not a situation that is taken lightly and our Department will continue to work cooperatively with the Department of Public Safety's Texas Rangers Division.

Respectfully,

Sergeant John Ramirez
Public Information Officer
