Impaired Driving Mobilization Program

ABILENE, TX – The Abilene Police Department is working in conjunction with the Abilene Fire Department, and the City of Abilene in preparation for the upcoming Labor Day Holiday. The city wants to remind citizens to use caution when driving on Abilene roadways.

The department will increase traffic enforcement through the Labor Holiday to help curb bad driving habits to include speeding, driving under the influence, reducing crashes and keeping motorist safe.

Remember to designate a driver if you plan on partaking in alcoholic beverages. Drivers can utilize soberrides.org to find an alternative way to get home safely.

Respectfully,

Rick Tomlin

Public Information Coordinator
