Detectives Working to Identify Suspects in Multiple Robberies

ABILENE, TX – Detectives with the Abilene Police Department are looking to identify two male suspects captured on surveillance video robbing multiple convenience stores. The suspects entered a convenience store on the 1000 Block of North Clack St. on Friday, September 28, just before midnight. One suspect displayed a handgun and demanded money from the clerk as the other stood watch by the door. Police believe these same two suspects robbed additional stores. Items taken were money and merchandise.

If you have information or recognize these suspects, you are urged to call Abilene Crime Stoppers, (325) 676-8477 (TIPS) and you will remain anonymous and receive a cash reward.

Robberies:

9/28/18 - 1000 Block of N. Clack at 23:53

11/11/18 – 3400 Block of Ambler at 23:37

11/20/18 – 2700 Block of N. 1st at 22:50

11/20/18 – 5100 Block of Buffalo Gap Rd. at 23:42

Respectfully,
Rick Tomlin – Public Information Coordinator
