Police Dispatch Supervisor Promotions

ABILENE, TX - The Abilene Police Department (APD) is proud to announce the promotions of two Police Communications employees. Shane Meffert will be promoted to the position of Division Manager and Becky Mackiewicz to that of Shift Supervisor.

Shane graduated high school from Blackwell CISD in 1994 and served in the Airforce from February 1996 to October of 1998. He began working as a dispatcher at APD in November of 1998. He has worked all shifts and promoted to supervisor then to QA/Training Coordinator. He earned an associate’s degree in Applied Sciences from Cisco Junior College in 2001. Shane is the proud father of 3 children, Audry 11, Jonas 8 and Mason 3.

Becky grew up in Abilene and graduated from Cooper in 1995. She attended the University of Texas at Austin before earning an associate’s degree from Northwest Vista College in San Antonio. Becky worked in retail, call centers, and in office administration before coming to APD in September of 2013. She is married to Sean Mackiewicz and she has two beautiful stepdaughters.

“The job of a Public Safety Dispatcher is a difficult one and we are thankful to have two individuals of this caliber taking on larger leadership roles within the organization.
“ Assistant Chief Doug Wrenn

Respectfully,
