Convenience Store Robbery

ABILENE, TX – Police Dispatch received a call of a Robbery at 4:18 a.m. on Friday, August 12, 2016. Police arrived to find the clerk of a convenience store, located on the 800 block of Grape Street, with some injuries. The clerk says an unknown black male entered the store and assaulted him with his hands in order to get money. After the assault, the suspect fled the scene with an undisclosed amount of currency.

The vehicle the suspect arrived in was reported stolen out of Runnels County earlier. It was recovered at the location of the robbery and is being held at the impound lot. A report was taken for Robbery. No suspects have been identified and the investigation is ongoing.

Respectfully,

Rick Tomlin
