Pedestrian Hit by Vehicle on South First Street

ABILENE, TX – On May 16, 2016, Police Dispatch received a call at 7:54 a.m. of a vehicle which hit a pedestrian near the intersection of South First and Ross Streets. Mary Navarez (48) and her spouse were walking east bound on South First. A Suburban heading north on Ross, turned onto South First, striking Navarez. The husband of the victim says he and his common law wife were arguing and Navarez pulled away from him and into the path of the SUV. Navarez was struck by the vehicle and suffered an injury to her left leg. She was transported to Hendrick Medical Center. No citations were issued.
