Police arrest former president of non-profit for Theft

Suspect: Kandace Raymond, DOB 10/06/1964

ABILENE, TX – On March 12, 2015 the Abilene Police Department CID Crimes Against Property Unit arrested Kandace Raymond for 2F Theft Enhanced. An investigation revealed that Raymond, who was serving as President of the Wylie Fast Pitch Softball League allegedly stole somewhere between $20,000 and $100,000 from the organization while she served as President. Members of the organization noticed missing money and notified police. Detectives investigated the financial records of the non-profit which ultimately led to the arrest of Raymond.

Raymond was booked into the Taylor County Jail for Second Degree Felony Theft Enhanced with bonds totaling $50,000.
