Man injured in North Abilene stabbing

ABILENE TX- Police were called to an apartment complex on the 3000 Blk. of West Lake Rd. just before 11 a.m. Friday, May 1, regarding an injured subject. Police found a male inside an apartment with a severe stab wound to his stomach. According to witness reports, an argument started between two men when one of the men gave a woman a ride home. The second male who was staying with the female, confronted the first male and allegedly stabbed him in the stomach after a verbal argument. The suspect fled the scene prior to police arrival. The victim was transported to the hospital with a serious laceration. He is in stable condition. No other information is being released at this time. Police are still looking for the suspect. The investigation continues.
