Body Recovered from Lake

ABILENE, TX – The Abilene Police Department received a call of a body found in the water at Lake Ft. Phantom on Sunday, November 1, 2015 at 4:30 p.m. Two people fishing near the area of Crow's Nest road discovered the body floating in the water by the dock. The Criminal Investigation Division was called out to investigate.

The body of 38 year old Lazarus Garcia of Abilene was recovered from the lake by Lake Patrol and the Abilene Police Department. There were no visible signs of foul play and the body has been sent to Tarrant County for an autopsy. This incident is currently being conducted as a Death Investigation.
